

Journal of Economics, Business and Management

CONTENTS

Volume 4, Number 1, January 2016

Evaluation of Energy Intensity in Lithuanian Wood Manufacturing Sector.....1	1
J. Vasauskaite and D. Streimikiene
A Survey of Certified Accountants Opinion on SMEs Financial Reporting: Evidence from Romania.....7	7
Maria Mădălina Buculescu and Anamaria Stoica
Do Specific Corporate Governance Attributes Contribute to the Quality of Financial Reporting? Evidence from Romania.....15	15
Andra Gajevszky
Implementation of IFRS as Base of Accounting – A Case Study on Romanian Banking System.....23	23
Anamaria Stoica and Buculescu Maria Mădălina
Foreign Exchange Interventions as an Unconventional Monetary Policy Instrument — An Empirical Review29	29
Bogdan Badescu
The Relationship between Turkey’s Financial Indicators and Economic Growth Rates.....36	36
Huseyin Cetin
Endogenous and Exogenous Factors for e-Marketing Technology and Innovation in Homestay Establishments: A Case Study of Samut Songkhram Province, Thailand.....40	40
Siripen Yiamjanya
Design Trends of Thai Halal Products Packaging for Muslim Country: Indonesian Food Products.....47	47
Pibool Waijittragum
Standing Points of Innovation Capacity.....53	53
Sofia Mouhallab and Wei Jianguo
Innovation as Entrepreneurial Drives in the Romanian Automotive Industry.....58	58
Alina Petronela Negrea and Valentin Cojanu
Investing in Nanotechnologies — A Three-Dimensional Approach.....65	65
Adriana Radan Ungureanu
Quantifying the Impact of Fiscal Policy on Economic Growth in the Romanian Economy: A Bayesian Approach.....72	72
Alina Bobasu
Seniors Citizen and Self-Care Behavior by the Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy in Bang Nang Lee, Amphawa, Samut Songkram.....76	76
Rangsima Passara

Management Pattern for Service Sector in Samut Songkram by Sufficient Economy Approach.....80
Krisada Sungkhamanee